Introduction of Uniforms

The boy's uniform is a traditional Japanese uniform called "Gakuran".

We wear a cool blue shirt that is rare in Niigata prefecture with a red tie. We wear sweaters in the spring and fall.

Both boys and girls wear a badge with the school emblem on the collar.

The boy's button has our school's emblem.

Gosen city is well known for its knitting business. All the uniforms are made in this city, and these clothes are very comfortable!

Teacher introduction

Ms. Ikue Yamamoto (English)

Hello! I am Ikue Yamamoto. I am an English teacher at Gosen High School. I think Gosen High School students are very cheerful and active. My motto is 'Time is money.' I always try not to waste my time as time is a very precious thing in my life. My favorite book is 'Kokoro wo totonoeru by Makoto Hasebe. I really like professional athletes' spirit. They are very strong physically and mentally. I respect their indomitable fighting spirit.

Ms. Yumi Ito (Integrated business)

Q: What is your motto?

A: "The most important thing is to enjoy your life."

Q: What is your impression of Gosen HS students?

A: I think they are still growing. Although they are not fully matured, I feel that they have limitless potential.

Mr. Kazuo Imai (Biology)

Q: What is your favorite creature?

A: My peach-faced Lovebird that I started keeping two months ago. The charming point is that the hair on the head is orange.

Q: What are your impressions of Gosen High school or students from your perspective?

A: My impression of students is that their greetings are good and everyone is good. But it's better if there are more students who try to challenge various things.

Mr. Tatsuo Sato (P.E.)

Q: What is the most important thing in your class?

A: Enjoying one's self.

Q: What is your impression of Gosen High School Students?

A: Most students are honest. They have an honest way of thinking and understanding. They work well together, but have difficulty working on their own. I want them to discover their own ability.
